EKONK

Second in Series of Pageant Services Given at the Church—Address By County Agent.

The second in the series of pageant services was given last Sunday evening and in spite of a stormy night a good audience was present.

Miss Edith Samson as the Spirit of Damascus gave a very fine history of that city, set in the heart of the most beautiful country in the world. She was dressed in the Syrian costume of the days of Paul, and recited the long monologue without a hitch. The verdict "it was very well done" was deserved.

Harry Sayles as St. Paul, was very effective in the recital of his conversion and teaching in Damascus. His flight into Arabia, and return to Jerusalem, after three years. The music was unusually good. The violin solo by Frank Zedoin, "May My Walk be Close with God," was finely rendered.

Mrs. George Gallup gave as a recitation solo, St. Paul, by Mendelssohn. It was very well done. The pastor's foreword on the uses of great men was much enjoyed.

The program for next Sunday evening will be of unusual interest. St. Paul describes his journey to Jerusalem, the distrust of all the disciples, but Barnabas, who recites his conversion and speaks of the community of goods. His banding of St. Paul and his preaching for him. Thomas Brown, take of part of Barnabas and Mrs. Thomas Brown represents the spirit of Antioch, the second church of Christianity and gives a brief history of the city from its founding to the coming of the followers of Christ. Onesimus, the houseman and friend of Paul, is represented by Leon Sayles. Miss Margaret Tanner the spirit of Jerusalem, recites "Each in his own tongue," and the choir sings "O Thou Christian! Christian! Christian!"
